Millermatic 135, 115v wire welder; SN LC687523

I work in a university and teach undergrads how to weld. We have 2 Millermatic 135s and both are having the same recurring problem. Occasionally, they'll stop feeding the wire smoothly and will start feeding it in a quick start/stop, jerky fashion. This only happens when welding. If I feed the wire into the air, the feed is smooth, like it ...
